Eddy Allen was absent.

David Franke of the Apple Dumpling League, John Moore of the Apple Valley Majors & Sunday Adult/Youth League, Ann Ostrand of the Women's Masters, Denis Hofstetter of the Early Sunday Mixed League, Todd Jacobe of the Wednesday Washout League and David DeMeuse of the Thursday Cut-Ups were present. Board members represented the following leagues: Apple Valley Classic, Northernettes and the Women's Apple Corps.

The following leagues were not represented: Odd Couples and Sister Bay Tavern.

Secretary's report of April 14, 2008 was presented in written form. Motion to accept as written by Todd Jacobe, seconded by Dave Wanke, passed.

Financial Report (including HOF and Tournament financial statements) and Membership information presented in written form. Motion to accept by Tim Jutila, seconded by David Franke, passed.

Committee Reports

Finance (*Barnie, Pat, Eddy, Kathy): All has been reviewed and is in order. Kathy will be changing our bank from North Shore to Baylake due to convenience. We will be checking into doing our own taxes as opposed to paying an accountant.

Youth (Michelle): We currently have 78 youth members sanctioned through Green Bay. By sanctioning the Sunday Adult/Youth league, we picked up an additional 12 youth members. We had 25 teams compete in the Adult/Youth tournament in December and 42 teams in the April tournament. Four (4) teams participated in the City Tournament in Green Bay, 4 teams went to State Tournament in Wausau, and 22 bowlers went to the High Average Tournament where 2 of our bowlers won awards. This summer we will have 2 adult/youth leagues. We are currently enrolled in the Registered Volunteer Program ($25 for 2 years) which will be mandatory within the next year.

Hall of Fame (*Kathy, Pat, Barnie, Michelle, Linda): We held our 3RD Annual Hall of Fame banquet on 10/18/08 with an attendance of 93 people. Linda Jarman was inducted for Meritorious Service and Mike Cuculi was inducted for Superior Performance. In addition to Ken Hoelzel being recognized for his 800 series, we also awarded 6 one-time 300 awards. Men's 800 series, Women's 700 series and 300 games are given once only awards. Amelia Campbell and Adam LaLuzerne were our Junior Bowlers of the Year. County Tournament winners and Association High Game, Series and Average winners were also honored. Special guest Pat Dederich from the Women's State Association was in attendance. Our banquet for this year is tentatively set for Saturday, October 24, 2009. We are currently looking for applicants for induction this year.

Tournament (*Dave, Eddy, Jim, Tim): This year all the events were held at Apple Valley Lanes due to the oiler breaking at Sister Bay Bowl. Team entries were down quite a bit (7) and the committee will be meeting in summer to find ways to increase participation. An all-woman team won the event for the first time. Couples team and the Door County Cup were eliminated this year due to poor participation. We had 26 doubles teams, 49 singles and 20 all-events.

Nominating (May*, Tim, Dave): The following positions were up for re-election: President Bernie Haen, Director Eddy Allen and Youth Director Michelle Pfannenstiel.

Motion to accept Bernie Haen as President by Linda Jarman, seconded by Todd Jacobe, passed.

Motion to accept John Moore and Todd Jacobe as new Directors by Bernie Haen, seconded by Michelle Pfannenstiel, passed.

Motion to accept Michelle Pfannenstiel as Youth Director by Ann Ostrand, seconded by Denis Hofstetter, passed.

Delegates Reports

- A. Bernie was unable to attend the meeting, but attended the Hall of Fame dinner.
- B. Linda submitted a written report. Pat is interested in hosting the Badger State Tournament. Linda will check into the benefits it would offer our Association.

New Business

- A. Bylaw change: Motion to remove maximum terms for President and Vice President from our bylaws (no minimum terms) by Todd Jacobe, seconded by Denis Hofstetter, passed.
- B. Membership revenue investments: Discussion focused on how to spend the money we have that would benefit bowlers.

*Kathy checked into having a professional bowler come for an exhibition and also attend our annual HOF banquet as a guest speaker. This would be something we would have to work out with the bowler's agent which means we probably could not afford it.

*Also discussed was the possibility of having a professional organization put on a coaching clinic. Pat will check into costs on this.

*Kathy also suggested purchasing new bowling programs for all the league secretaries so that everyone would be up-to-date, especially because awards will be changing this coming bowling season. John Moore thought we would only have to purchase 2-3 programs and rotate them to each league. Kathy will check further into this. Motion was made by Jim Regner to purchase programs, seconded by Ann Ostrand, passed.

- C. Suggestions/Feedback from Delegates

*John noted that we will be needing a new Hall of Fame plaque

Motion to adjourn by Michelle Pfannenstiel, seconded by Tim Jutila, passed. Meeting adjourned at 8:19 p.m.

Wisconsin State Women's Bowling Assn. Annual Meeting
Radisson Hotel, Green Bay, WI
March 13 - 15, 2009

The weekend began with registration on Friday afternoon and the Wis. Women Bowling Writers and 500 club meetings followed in the evening. The 600 club meeting was on Sat. morning prior to the annual meeting.

The annual meeting began with introductions of three ladies who received their first 300 game and two who had 800 series. After the elections, there was a great deal of discussion regarding the USBC proposed dues increase to help offset the losses incurred by moving to Texas. The next bone of contention was the proposed forced merger of all state associations. The Wis. Women have an ongoing dialog with several states that also oppose this move. We would consider breaking from USBC despite their threat of a lawsuit.

The state board has done a phenomenal job of cutting the budget to the bone while still increasing the awards and recognition given to its members. The Jeannette Kneppreth scholarship committee is seeking application for their $1,000 scholarship. If you know of a deserving youth who is related to a member of the Wis. Women's Bowling Assn., they are eligible.

Following is a list of upcoming tournaments:

- 500 club tournament Oct. 3 - Oct. 19, 2009
Diamond Lanes, Beloit
- 600 club tournament Oct. 24 - Nov. 29, 2009
Hodag Lanes, Rhinelander
- Badger Queens Oct. 17 & 18, 2009
Dale's Weston Lanes
- Badger State Bowling Council Mixed Handicap Tournament Oct. 17 - Nov. 15, 2009
Wally's Seymour Bowl, Seymour
- Wis. State USBC WBA annual tournament begins Jan. 2010
Riviera Lanes and Pro Bowl in Green Bay

More info can be obtained at orgsites.com/wi/wistateusbcwba.index.html

The Q & A on Sunday morning was very informative. There was info presented regarding association taxes. Associations with $25,000 or less in income after state bowling dues are paid need only file the one page 990 EZ form. This needs to be done within four months after the end of the fiscal year. The form can be filled out online at www.irs.gov under the EO (exempt organizations) link.

The Green Bay Women's Bowling Assn. is seeking help with next years state tournament due to their size and like any assn. the number of those willing to help. They need scorekeepers, and people to sell raffle tickets and merchandise. Contact Linda Jarman if you would be willing to help out. You can commit to one shift or several.

Thank you for allowing me to be your delegate to the state convention.

Respectfully submitted by,

Linda Jarman

Sister Bay Bowl

On October 28, 1958 the first order of business was voting on a league name. Nor-Dor Women's League, Northern Womens League, and Northernette Womens League. Guess which one received the most votes! We are honored to have some of the women who formed our league with us tonight. The legacy we have from the women who bowled before us, is one of competition, but mostly of fun. Ask about the costume nights (not just Halloween), or banquet song fests. They also proved that the near impossible can be done. Helen Beckstrom, Ethel Hilander, Ruth Gename, and Delores Michelsen all picked up the dreaded big four split. For all this and more, we thank you.

Door County's five-man series record obliterated

Considering all of the big individual scores we've seen over the past few years, it's surprising that the Door County series record for a five-man team stood as long as it did.

But not only did it finally fall a couple of weeks ago, it got crushed. Big time.

The Apple Valley Pro Shop team from the Apple Valley Majors put together a heckuva night back on Sept. 23, easily topping the old team mark by an astonishing 249 pins while shooting 3,690.

To put that in perspective, that's an average of 246 per game or a 738 series by everyone on the team. None of their 15 games were under 200; the lowest was a 204. The high game was a 279, with three others over 260.

Team members Adam

BARNIE
HAEN

Kring 713 series (205, 257, 251), Geoff Hansen 693 (204, 245, 244), Doc Bundy 771 (268, 237, 266), Pat Cuculi 734 (279, 228, 277) and Mike Cuculi 779 (266, 255, 258) threw a total of 122 strikes in three games, along with 34 spares and eight open frames. Bundy was the only bowler with an all-mark series, although the Cuculis each had only one open frame.

Another impressive fact about this bowling feat was the consistency of the scores. Locally, five-man games of 1,200 or better are relatively rare. The Pro Shop topped that mark all night long, starting with two games of 1,222 and finishing with a 1,246. Of its 122 strikes, there were 41 in each of the first two games, with 40 in game three. The county record for a five-man game, by the way, is 1,295.

Despite its big score, Apple Valley Pro Shop narrowly missed national recognition from the United States Bowling Congress for its achievement. A five-man total of 3,700 is necessary to catch their eye these days. The current all-time record is 3,934 by the Limo Exchange of New Castle, Del., on April 1, 2004. The women's team record is 3,610.

The 3,690 bested a 3,441 recorded locally by the Lutheran Brotherhood — also in the Apple Valley Majors — on Jan. 25, 2000. Strangely enough, Mike Cuculi was the high man for the previous record-holder as well, and Geoff Hansen was the low man on both.

Although at just three weeks in it's still early in the season, the hot start by the Pro Shop team has resulted in some eye-popping averages. Mike Cuculi is at 243, with Pat Cuculi 236, Hansen 233, Kring 221 and Bundy 214 for a team total of 1,123 pins per game.

And, while the Pro Shop gets the headlines, Scott Voeks rolled the first 300 in Door County this season in the Majors Sept. 30. The perfecto came in his final game of the night and followed a 278 in game two. His series was 753. Do the math.

Yeah. Ouch.

Newest members to Hall of Fame made unique contributions

Linda Jarman and Mike Cuculi will be inducted into the Door County Bowling Hall of Fame Saturday night during a banquet at the Ladder House in Sturgeon Bay.

Tickets are still available by calling Apple Valley Lanes at (920) 743-6997.

Jarman, of Fish Creek, has been intimately involved in the support and management of — and participation in — bowling on the local, state and national levels.

She has served as president of the Northernette League in Sister Bay for 20 years and apparently has never missed a league night. She bowled in 15 county tournaments and 10 state tournaments, organizing Northern Door squads for state several times.

HAEN

Locally, Jarman was a member of the Board of Directors for the Door County Women's Bowling Association for 13 years, five of those as vice president. Since the USBC association merger, she has once again become a member of the board.

While serving on the women's board, she was historian for 10 years, handled publicity, and worked on the budget committee, among others.

For the state association, Jarman attended every annual meeting from 1991 onward as the delegate from Door County. She was a member of the 500 Club for 13 years and served on the 500 Club board of directors for two of those.

She was also a member of the Wisconsin Women Bowling Writers Association for more than 15 years, spending six of those as president, six as chair of the annual meeting committee, and various terms on a host of other committees. She has been a life member of the writers association since 2006.

On the national level, she was a delegate to the WIBC national meeting twice and has been a member of the National Bowling Writers Association since 1993, serving on the Ways and Means and Annual Meeting committees.

Although not the author of eye-opening scores on the lanes, Jarman's long history of service to the bowling community on all levels makes her a fitting addition to the Door County Hall of Fame.

When it comes to bowling performance, few Door County keglers come close to the achievements of Mike Cuculi.

A league bowler since the 1989-90 season, Cuculi has carried a composite average of 209.48 in 38 leagues over that time, with only four leagues under 200. In recent seasons, however, his scores have put him at the top of the local bowling heap time and again.

His 225 average in the Wednesday Night Washout for 2007-2008 ties him for the all-time county high with Scott Voeks.

Cuculi has averaged 220 or better six times, a lofty level that few bowlers in Door County have managed once. He has rolled more than 140 series of 700 or better in local leagues, with many more in tournaments. His yearly total of honor counts regularly sets the standard for other local bowlers.

Cuculi has five perfect games to his credit and, although he has not (yet) topped the 800 mark, his 795 high series set the association record back in 1995.

Cuculi helped his team win the 2002 Door County Association championship by shooting a 780 series. He won the doubles competition with his father, Pat, in 1996 and the all-events title in 1999. Cuculi also owns the scratch Door County Cup titles from 2001 and 2004.

Three weeks ago, he was the high man (779) on a team that broke the county series record, and was also the high man on the previous record team back in 2000.

Most impressive of all, Mike and Pat Cuculi came within a whisker of winning the ABC national doubles title in 2001, with another duo edging them out by a few pins during the last week of the tournament (on the pickup of the 6-7-10 split in the 10th frame of the third game, no less).

Record set on high-scoring weekend

The minor events of the 2009 Door County USBC Tournament are history, with the two weekend shifts at Apple Valley Lanes seeing a lot of big series and exciting games.

That was especially true on the second Saturday when Scott Voeks, Geoff Hansen and Scott Dix combined to put on a high-scoring show.

Dix began the doubles competition with last-minute partner Kathy Franke by tallying strikes on 22 of his first 24 balls (including 17 in a row) in games of 279 and 278 before settling for a 726 series. He then came back with a 269 game and 706 series in singles.

Voeks shot 739 in doubles, including a 268 game, before adding a 769 in singles fueled by games of 277 and 256.

Hansen also rolled 22 of 24 strikes and 17 in a row during his last two games of doubles — a 276 and 297 that total an all-time Door County back-to-back best 573. His 757 series was followed by a more pedestrian 675 in singles that featured a 267.

Hansen's top three games out of the six he bowled (297, 276, 267) totaled an incredible 840. Dix's best three (279, 278, 269) added up to 826. Voeks, however, averaged 251 for his six games and, although his top three (277, 268, 256) were "only" 801, his worst three games of the day were still 707!

Almost lost in the shuffle were series of 702 and 679 in singles and doubles, respectively, by John Moore.

Scores were a bit more sedate during the first weekend, highlighted by a 693 series in singles by Kathy Franke. Brothers Scot (668) and Mike (660) Hilsabeck teamed up for a solid doubles outing and the top individual games were a 267 by Lee Holmes and a 262 by Andy Alger, both in doubles.

Despite their prodigious numbers, Dix, Voeks, Hansen and Moore did not take home any championship hardware.

Franke's 693 in singles, with 78 pins of handicap, barely edged out Voeks for first place 771-769. Corey Treichel finished third, with Moore fourth and Eddy Allen III fifth.

In the doubles event, I was carried to my fourth Door County bowling title by my partner, Eric Olson, who rolled a 685 series to my (respectable) 657. Steve Belongia and Tim Jutila teamed up for second place, followed by the teams of Hilsabeck and Hilsabeck, Franke and Dix, and Dale Christianson and Bill Jarman.

Forbes, a steady shooter, rolls first 300 game

“I’ve been waiting for this for 20 years.” That was the response I got from Tim Forbes when I called to ask him about Door County’s latest perfect game. Forbes rolled a 300 in the Apple Dumplings on Jan. 9.

Back in the day, Forbes was a young hot shot in the Apple Valley Major. He once held the Door County series record at 793, a number that’s only been improved upon by 11 pins during the past 14 years.

Some injury problems caused Forbes to give up the sport for a few seasons, but now he’s back bowling every other week in two leagues: as a regular in the Apple Dumplings (198 average) and switching off in the Apple Valley Classic (208 average).

Of his 300 game, Forbes said the first eight strikes “were solid.” He kicked out the 4-pin on a high hit in the ninth frame and again on the second ball in the 10th. He said he didn’t watch the last ball, but ended up flat on his back on the approach when it carried.

Unlike a lot of 300s, this one came in the first game of the night. Forbes said he was still trying to calm down well into the second game, and was disappointed that the big start didn’t translate into a 700 or better series, which he said would have been his first in six years.

Apparently, his reputation for solid scores week after week still holds true, if he carries a 208 league average without having a 700.

At last, Pat Cuculi rolls 800 series

"Barnie, I thought I'd die without one."

So said Pat Cuculi, who, despite being a member of the Green Bay and Door County bowling halls of fame, despite having thrown several perfect games, despite a runner-up finish in doubles competition at nationals, had never authored an 800 series — until a week ago Monday, on April 6.

Cuculi rolled an 803 series in the Apple Valley Classic league, bowling with his daughter and son-in-law, Mike and Michelle Pfannenstiel.

After starting the first game by leaving a 10-pin, he ran the next 10 strikes in a row before another 10-pin on the second ball in the final frame, covering it for 279.

The second game started out even better, with another 10-strike string, ending with a 7-10 split and a 287.

The third game wasn't as spectacular, although the 237 finale was enough to put him over the top and agonizingly close to the Door County record 804 series co-owned by Scott Voeks and Shawn Jorgenson. A 7-pin on the first ball in the 10th frame was the culprit this time around.

This big score came from an unlikely place: lanes 1-2 at Apple Valley Lanes — generally considered the most difficult place to bowl in the house. Cuculi questioned that reputation, considering that his last two performances on those lanes were a 758 and the 803.

"Toughest pair? Turn me loose!" he joked.

The series once again made the Cuculi family's biggest cheerleader, Pat's wife, Sandi, proud. It's been an exciting season for the Cuculis. Daughter Michelle recorded her first-ever 700 series, a 703, on Nov. 17. Son Mike broke the 800 barrier with an 802 on Feb. 3, following his induction into the Door County Bowling Hall of Fame back in October. And now, Pat has joined the family assault on the record books, as well.

Cuculi held the Door County record at 779 back in the late 1980s; son Mike also was the record holder at 795 in the mid-1990s. Cuculi has had a great season, even by his high standards — currently holding 219 averages in both the Classic and in the Apple Valley Major.

Even while on vacation in Florida over the winter, Cuculi kept sharp by bowling twice a week in senior leagues sporting some pretty tough competition, including a couple of former PBA members.

So, was it a hot new ball that sparked the big series? Some savvy adjustment to difficult lane conditions?

Said Cuculi modestly, "It was just one of those nights."

Ball change helps Cuculi join 800 club

One of Door County's most accomplished bowlers added a long-awaited line to his bowling resume last week when Mike Cuculi rolled an 802 series in the Apple Valley Major League.

Cuculi's score fell just two pins short of the current county record of 804 shared by Scott Voeks and Shawn Jorgenson.

Included in the series was a perfect second game, which I believe is the sixth of Cuculi's career. An opening 244 and a closing 258 comprised the remainder of his evening.

What may have otherwise been just another night at the lanes turned into a special occasion in large part due to ball selection.

"In practice, my Storm just wasn't hooking like it normally does," Cuculi recalled. "After I left the 2-8-10 in the second frame, I switched to my Black Widow."

That first-game split turned out to be the only blemish of the evening.

Following his 300, Cuculi began game three with a strike, then rang a 10-pin. After a double, another good ball left a solid 7-pin. Although the county record went out the window after those two "taps," the 800 mark was still within reach. Six more strikes in a row left Cuculi needing a seven count on his last ball, which he rifled down the middle — leaving a 6-pin but achieving a significant career milestone.

Cuculi, a 2008 inductee into the Door County Bowling Hall of Fame, owned the local association series record for some time after rolling a 795 series on Jan. 11, 1995 (also including a perfect game). It remains the highest non-800 series among local scores and aids in highlighting just how difficult it is to reach that round number. Seven Door County bowlers have now scored 800, but none better than 804. Fourteen years later, the series record is still just nine pins better than Cuculi's 1995 effort.

Pfannenstiel's 703 one for the record books

Let's start this week's column with congratulations to Michelle Pfannenstiel, who shot her first-ever 700 series in the Apple Valley Classic back on Nov. 17.

Pfannenstiel, who bowls on Monday afternoons with her husband, Mike, and father, Pat Cuculi, rolled a 703 on games of 269, 213 and 221. Her previous best had been a 667 from last season.

As all of you out there who read my column know, Cuculi is one of the top bowlers in Door County (see item below, as well). Pfannenstiel felt some extra pressure with a 700 on the line but received a lot of fatherly encouragement along the way.

"I knew I had a chance going into the last game," she said, "but I threw a split in the seventh frame and thought I had blown it. But my dad told me to 'get back on it.'"

A double in the ninth and tenth, plus a big count on the next shot, was enough to attain the magic number.

What was Pfannenstiel's secret? Her ball had been wet sanded in Pat's Pro Shop prior to that series. Wet sanding not only takes the dings and dents out of the ball, it also gives the ball greater hook because residual lane oil is removed from the ball's surface. More hook equaled more striking power early in the series. Then, when the lanes "dried out" as the lane oil dissipated, the oil that the ball had picked up early on cut back on the hook while maintaining a strong line to the pocket. Pfannenstiel only had two open frames — both splits — which were also her only counts under nine in three games.

Pfannenstiel's 700 count was the 23rd in Door County history by a woman, and the first since the 2006-2007 season. More impressive, she became only the fifth woman in Door County to reach that level, joining Kathy Franke (9 times), Sue Sperber (8), Stephanie Hartel (4) and Lisa Hartel (1). Franke's 736, shot during the 1998-99 season, remains the all-time Door County women's record.

A second chance at fatherhood

Sturgeon Bay man serves as 'Dad' for teenager

Every other Sunday night, Danny Vandertie and his father spend the evening bowling together.

They joined an adult/youth league six years ago and as a result have improved their bowling games considerably.

But that's not why they do it.

"It's about spending quality time together," Vandertie said.

Vandertie, 15, has a unique relationship with his father—a connection that, on the surface, may seem difficult to explain. He and his father don't share DNA, an address or even the same last name.

"People might be a little confused at first," Vandertie said. "But if they know me, they know he is my dad."

The man Vandertie calls dad is Steven Jacobe of Sturgeon Bay.

Jacobe has been in Vandertie's life ever since 1994, when he met Vandertie's mother, Gina Scholze. Vandertie was about a year old at the time.

For Jacobe, raising Vandertie was a second chance at fatherhood.

"I have a biological son who is 35 and lives in California," Jacobe said. "I was on the road a lot for work when he was growing up, so I missed out on his life. I wanted to make up for all of the things I didn't do with him."

Although Jacobe and Vandertie's mother parted ways in 2002 and the biological father hasn't been in the picture for years, Jacobe and Vandertie remain close.

Bowling is one of many activities that Vandertie and Jacobe do to maintain that closeness.

"It's all about the camaraderie, the smiles and the laughter," Jacobe said.

Not living with his son has been hard on Jacobe, but they try not to let that put a strain their relationship.

"Keeping the lines of communication open is very important," Jacobe said.

For men, Jacobe said, this doesn't always come naturally. Tying activities into their time together makes it possible for them to talk more freely.

While their time together should be meaningful, it should also be productive, Jacobe said.

A lot of the activities they do together are physical, but not necessarily competitive. They golf, go fishing and take trips together on a regular basis.

"It's all for the bonding time," Jacobe said.

Being active in Vandertie's busy life is also a priority for Jacobe.

Vandertie, a sophomore at Sturgeon Bay High School, is involved in a lot of extracurricular activities: golf, intramural basketball, choir and chess. Jacobe makes himself available to offer support and advice.

Because Vandertie's father keeps a constant, visible presence in his life, talking to him is easy, Vandertie said.

"He makes me laugh when I am feeling down," he said, "and I know I can talk to him about anything."

Showing respect and preserving judgment, Jacobe said, enable them to have an honest and communicative relationship.

The values he is learning through their relationship, Jacobe said, Vandertie carries with him in the other areas of his life.

So while Vandertie will never have his father's biological makeup, Jacobe can still see himself in his son.

"He is growing up to be responsible adult," Jacob said. "He is doing well in school, he has very good manners, and he treats others with respect."

Vandertie is willing to give credit where credit is due

"(My dad) taught me how to be a gentleman," Vandertie said, "and to treat people the way I want to be treated."

While children can be raised differently and still grow into loving and caring human beings, Jacobe said showing them love is an important part of parenting.

"Always say I love you," Jacobe said. "Too many parents don't. Men especially—they feel they are supposed to be macho, but they need to say it, and the children need to hear it."

"Love is the only thing you can give away and still have more to give."
