Financial report presented in written form. Motion to accept by Eddy Allen, seconded by Linda Jarman, passed.

Committee Reports:

Finance (Bernie*, Pat, Eddy): No report

Youth (Michelle): The Door County youth are still sanctioned with Green Bay. Because our area is so small and Apple Valley Lanes is the only house that has youth leagues, being part of Green Bay offers the youth bowlers more opportunities. Twenty of our youth recently competed in the High Average Tournament and 6 teams competed in the City Tournament (with 2 teams taking 1st place). Four teams will be going to Oshkosh for the State Tournament. Apple Valley currently has 60 youth competing in Adult/Youth leagues on Friday and Saturday and has held 2 Adult/Youth tournaments. They will also be offering Adult/Youth summer leagues on Wednesday and Friday with winners earning a Wisconsin Dells package. USBC will be offering scholarship tournaments.

Hall of Fame (Kathy*, Pat, Bernie, Michelle, Linda Jarman): We held our 1st Hall of Fame banquet on 10/21/06 and had 96 people attend. Gail Chadek and Dave Wanke were our first inductees in the Hall of Fame. Honored were Dee Alfson for her 300 game, Chuck Kroll for his 800 series, Alisa Hutton & John Heimbecher as Junior Bowlers of the Year, and County Tournament winners and Association High Game, Series and Average winners. Special guests Joe Boulanger from the Men's State Association and Pat Dederich from the Women's State Association were in attendance. Our banquet for this year will be Saturday, October 21, 2007.

Tournament (Dave*, Steph, Eddy): Final standing sheet and prize list were distributed. We need to promote tournament earlier next year and work on getting more Couples Team entries—last year we had 6 teams, this year only 4. Instead of awarding plaques this year for the winners, shirts will be awarded. Women had good results this year with a 4th place in the Singles event, a 1st place and 3rd place in the All-Events and our first ever all woman team took 3rd place in the Team event. We will work on getting more women involved. The Association added $1 per member ($511) and raised $545 in 50/50 raffle money for the prize fund.

Nominating (May*, Tim, Dave): The following positions were voted on: President—Barnie Haen (motion to accept by May Jutila, seconded by Dave Wanke, passed), Vice President—Dave Wanke (motion to accept by Michelle Pfannenstiel, seconded by May Jutila, passed), Director—May Jutila (motion to accept by Pat Cuculi, seconded by Michelle Pfannenstiel, passed), and Director—Linda Jarman (motion to accept by Eddy Allen, seconded by Steph Hartel, passed).

There was no old business to discuss.

Linda Jarman distributed her written delegate's report from the Women's State Association Annual meeting held in Oshkosh on March 9, 10, 11, 2007. She will also be attending the workshop in Sheboygan.

The next Board of Director's Meeting will be Monday, August 20, 2007 at 7 p.m. at Apple Valley Lanes.

Meeting adjourned at 8:58 p.m. Motion to adjourn by Steph Hartel, seconded by Pat Cuculi, passed.

Chadek, Wanke entering Hall

The Door County United States Bowling Congress (USBC) association will induct its first Hall of Fame class since the merger of the men's, women's and junior associations Saturday night at the Reef Sports Bar in Sturgeon Bay.

Dave Wanke and Gail Chadek will be honored, and last season's tournament winners and men's and women's high score and average setters will be recognized.

As a result of the merger, Chadek will become the first woman enshrined in the association's Hall of Fame.

Chadek has been a sanctioned bowler for 34 years, and held the office of Door County Women's Bowling Association secretary/treasurer for more than 15 of those years. As secretary, she oversaw the association tournament and participated on many committees.

Chadek is a former state tournament doubles champion, along with teammate Tracy May. Chadek's high series is a 696, with a high game of 268 so far. The highest average she has held over the years is 179.

Chadek's combination of bowling acumen and service to Door County bowlers makes her an easy choice for the Hall.

Meanwhile, Wanke has been a sanctioned bowler in Door County since the 1983-84 season.

Over the years, Wanke has served as secretary and resident of various leagues, as well as president and board member of the local association. But it is his scoring history more than anything that opened the doors of the Hall of Fame to him.

Wanke was a member of the powerful Gordon Electric team in the Apple Valley Majors for many seasons, sharing in several league championships. His eight 700s during the 1992-1993 season set a Door County record, when his high average was 211 — a very impressive mark at the time.

Wanke has recorded more than 20 career honor scores, the highest of which was a 778 March 13, 1993. Wanke rolled the 19th sanctioned perfect game in Door County history Dec. 13, 1997, but is perhaps best known for breaking the 52-year-old county record of Al Moore (765) with a 770 series during the 1988-1989 season.

Tickets for Saturday night's awards banquet are still available from USBC board members. Come out and join us as we honor Chadek and Wanke, as well as Dee Alfson for Door County's first women's perfect game, Chuck Kroll for his 802 series and Junior Bowlers of the Year John Heimbecher and Alisa Hutton.

League leaders

And now for a few quick scores:

Kathy Franke rolled a 630 series and 234 game in the Apple Dumplings, while Tim Forbes (655-258) and Tim Jutila (649-264) flip-flopped high honors among the men.

Diane Watermolen led the Women's Masters last week with a 577 (203). Pat Kring and Chadek shared high game honors at 210.

Todd Jacobe's 640 was high in the Sunday Mixed Couples, although the best game belonged to Ed Connor with a 246. Laura Wodzinski had 548 (223) for the ladies.

Two weeks back, the high bowlers among the kids in the Adult/Youth League were Danny Jacobe (402-150), Justin Hilsabeck 158 and Hailey Kriel (344 - 131). Virginia Kriel led the women with a 484-177 and Marty Hilsabeck bowled well, posting a 212 game and 575 series.
