BOWLING

Pfannenstiel 'surprised' by Hall of Fame honor

Michelle Pfannenstiel is excited to be one of three bowlers being inducted into the Door County USBC Hall of Fame this year and she isn't taking this once-in-a-lifetime honor lightly.

"There have been so many others who have bowled longer that I'm surprised I was chosen," she said.

But inductions aren't based solely on quantity of years bowled, but on the quality of those years. And Pfannenstiel's career has been filled with accomplishments worthy of this recognition.

She has bowled for 36 years and has accrued league and county tournament championships and a slew of honor scores. Last season was a breakout season for Pfannenstiel, who not only rolled a personal-best game of 279 and series of 724, but also a career-high average of

FRANKE
BOWLING

201, the first time she has broken this mark. Her most memorable moment came in 2008 when she bowled her first 700 series, a 703.

"I bowled a lot of years without one," she said. "I knew what I needed in the 10th and was able to do it."

Aside from its social aspect and the years spent bowling with her dad, Hall of Famer Pat Cuculi, she says, "I just genuinely love the game. I like the sport of it."

Pfannenstiel is driven by an intense competition within herself to always improve, and that continues with her learning to read and adjust to changing lanes conditions quicker.

Pfannenstiel doesn't hesitate when asked what she wants to accomplish next.

"That's an easy one," she said. "Hands down it's shooting 300."

Apart from bowling and running Apple Valley Lanes with her husband, Mike, she loves spending time with friends at summer cookouts, golfing, playing volleyball and vacationing in Florida.

She and her dad have always bowled together, but he now spends more time in Florida. This change is difficult for Pfannenstiel, whose eyes glazed over when I asked her how she feels about her dad presenting her at the Hall of Fame banquet.

"It's very special," she said. "I've bowled with him for years."

The Hall of Fame banquet is Saturday, Oct. 24, at the Door County Fire Company in Sturgeon Bay. Tickets can be purchased at Apple Valley Lanes or Sister Bay Bowl, from a board member or by calling Joan Franda at (920) 825-1102 or (920) 493-1102.

Milestones

Diane Franklin fired her personal high game of 256, 101 pins over her average, in the Apple Dumplings.

BOWLING

Rosters, subs subject of new rules for season

I've attended countless preseason bowling league meetings and, while often dull and tedious, important changes come about that set the tone for how a league is run for the season.

Generally, circumstances occurring during the previous season point to rules that need to be adjusted or made to make competition fair for league members.

This year, a once-practiced tradition was resurrected binding the two men's leagues involved in the end-of-season Challenge Match to having detailed team rosters. Because of the monetary prize offered, rules need to be in place to protect the teams involved as well as those running the competition and to also respect the team sponsors and those sponsors who provide the prize fund.

BOWLING

During my early years in Milwaukee, team captains were responsible for submitting their official rosters on the first night of league. But that practice gradually disappeared probably because, like now, most teams are sponsored preventing its members switching allegiances during the season. Rosters ensure that teams involved in end-of-season playoffs field the same players who have been used all year so that "ringers" aren't brought in for crucial matches. Herein lies the crux of the matter.

In years past, leagues were full and bowlers didn't have work and family obligations that now hinder them from adhering to a weekly commitment. Today, with leagues short on teams and many teams short on players from week to week, subs have become a huge part of the game. They are integral, keeping teams from having to forfeit or from having to use a set score that practically guarantees a team loss for the night.

Leagues cannot function without subs, but more and more, leagues are realizing that the use of subs in some circumstances is questionable and are adopting rules limiting their use in decisive matches.

For this season, both men's leagues must submit a roster of players by the second week of the season. There are also minimum game requirements for roster members' eligibility to compete in the Challenge Match. Subs do have the choice of committing to a team roster or remaining on the league roster as roving to be used as needed by any team. This new rule will take away available subs for each league and it'll be interesting to see its impact, but for now it keeps the competition fair for all involved.

BOWLING

Englebert gets his name in Hall of Fame

Dale Englebert has had his eye on the Door County USBC Hall of Fame cabinet for some time now and is honored that his name will soon be added, forever distinguishing him and his two fellow inductees among the best in the area.

"It's hard to say it's been a goal, but it is something I've always wanted to get in," he said. "I see all the nameplates every week when I come to bowl."

Englebert has racked up an impressive list of achievements in his 35 years of bowling by rolling his way to a number of league championships as well as capturing his first county tournament title last February. He consistently averages over 215, capturing career highs of 223 in 2010-11 and 221 in 2012-13.

During the 2012/13 season, he scored his first 800 series, an 802, and two months later followed it with his third perfect game. In another two months, he collected his fourth perfect game while competing in the State Tournament in Fond du Lac. However, his most memorable highlight was shooting his first 300 game in 1995.

BOWLING

Amazingly, Englebert is largely a self-taught bowler. Although he is quick to point out that he had many mentors along the way, including Hall of Famer Bill Hall, who still helps when he has timing problems. His biggest challenge early on was learning to consistently make spares, especially the 10-pin.

Englebert is a natural athlete. He plays golf, dartball and basketball and is a former softball pitcher. But bowling has a special place in his heart.

"I enjoy doing it because I'm good at it and it's competitive. I also get to bowl with friends I hang around with," he said. "What's nice about bowling, too, is that it breaks up the long winter."

Even with all of his accomplishments, Englebert continues pushing himself to achieve his ultimate goal.

"I would love to win a state title; singles, doubles or all-events," he said.

A big smile crosses his face when asked how special it is to be inducted into the county Hall of Fame.

"I'm ecstatic!" he said. "It's going to be a special night to share with my family and friends."

The Hall of Fame banquet is Saturday, Oct. 24, at the Door County Fire Company in Sturgeon Bay. Tickets can be purchased at Apple Valley Lanes in Sturgeon Bay or Sister Bay Bowl, or by calling Joan Franda at (920) 825-1102 or (920) 493-1102.

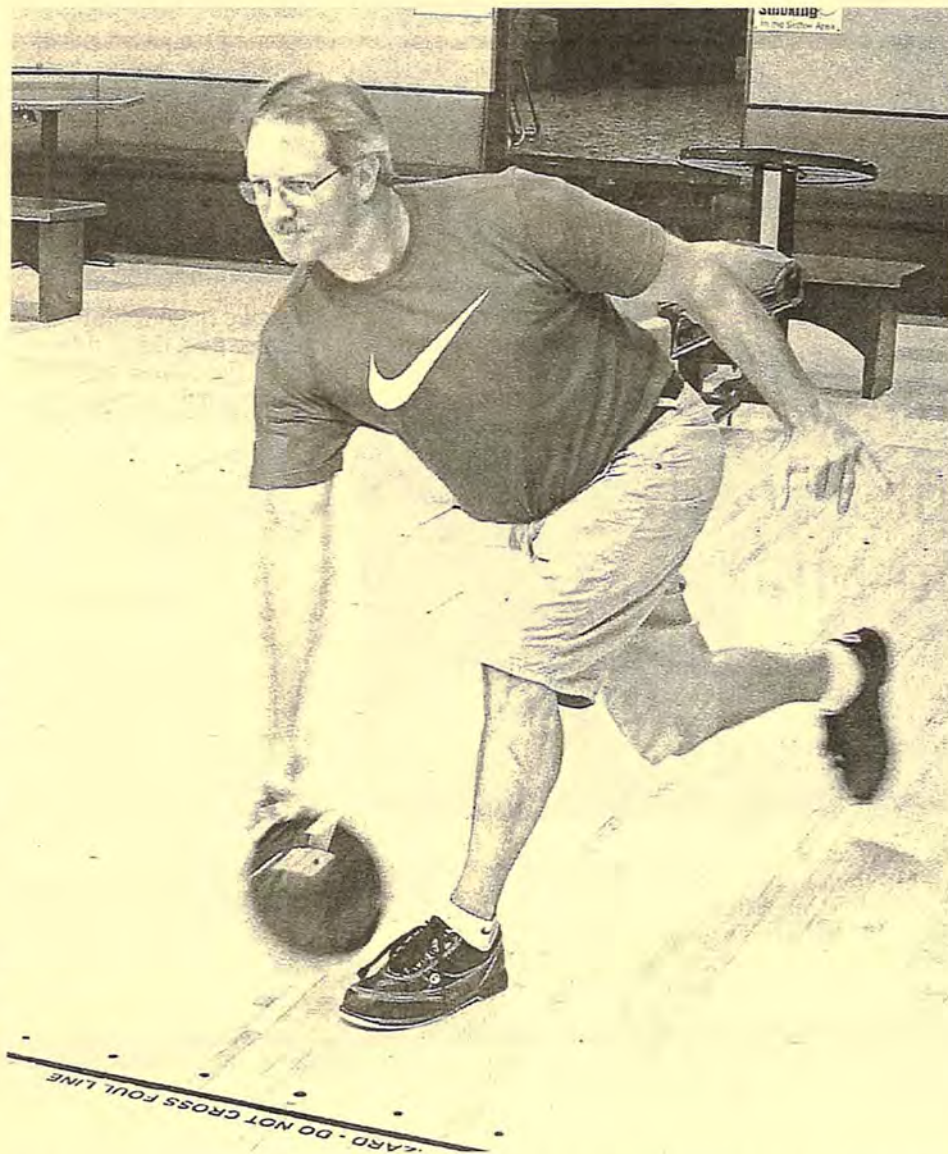

Weekly leaders

Dee Alfson led the Women's Masters for the second consecutive week with a 200 game and 473 series.

Andy Alger topped the Apple Valley Majors with a 257 game while Adam Kring took high series honors with 683.

In the Bay Couples, Kring cracked a 259 high game and 660 high series to lead the men while Carol Kroll popped a 172 high game and 464 series to lead the women.

Kathy Franke is an Advocate bowling columnist. She can be reached by email at 2ndaro@gmail.com Dale Englebert, a largely self-taught bowler, has rolled four perfect games during his career. He was the 2014-15 Door County champion.

BOWLING

Daubner follows family footsteps into Hall of Fame

Mike Daubner is thrilled and honored to be one of three 2015 inductees into the Door County USBC Hall of Fame.

"It's nice to be part of something special in the county," he said. "It's pretty darn exciting!"

He will be following in the footsteps of his late grandfather, Earl "The Pearl" Willems, late father Dick Daubner, and his brother, Jason Daubner, all members in the Hall of Fame.

It was his grandpa Leo and dad who taught him to bowl 21 years ago. Along the way, Hall of Famer Wayne Pinkalla shared his wisdom and knowledge of the game while Kyle Pinkalla sparked Daubner's competitiveness.

Daubner has accrued numerous league and county tournament championships and is a regular competitor at the state tournament. He holds a top average of 217 along with a high game of 290 and high series of 752. The 290 game stands out as his biggest moment because, he says, "They were all buried. It should have been a perfect game."

KATHY
FRANKE
BOWLING

While Daubner loves the competition and trying to beat opposing teams, it's about the challenge of being able to control the mechanical and mental aspects of the game.

"You can't rely on anyone else but yourself," he said. "There's a lot that can go wrong, but it's up to you."

Like all top bowlers, he continues learning.

"The hardest things for me are slowing down and learning to read the lanes correctly in order to adjust fast enough," he said. "And to stop being so stubborn thinking it's always me and not the lanes."

Time permitting from managing Sister Bay Bowl, he enjoys fishing, hunting and playing golf.

Daubner's biggest aspiration is no surprise.

"Bowling a 300 game for sure," he says and then adds, "An 800 would be nice, but anything over 750 is a goal now."

While deeply missing his dad, Daubner smiles at the good fortune of having his brother, Jason, to present him into the Hall of Fame.

"It's special having my brother in the Hall, someone who shares the same passion and love for the sport that I do," he said.

The Hall of Fame banquet is Saturday, Oct. 24, at the Door County Fire Company in Sturgeon Bay. Tickets can be purchased at Apple Valley Lanes or Sister Bay Bowl, from a board member or by calling Joan Franda at (920) 825-1102 or (920) 493-1102.

Hill tops girls for Junior Bowler of the Year

Jacquelyn Hill was almost speechless when she found out she was selected as one of the two Junior Bowlers of the Year who will be honored at this year's Hall of Fame banquet.

"Wow!" Hill said, her face breaking into a big smile. "It was a complete surprise. Cool, really cool."

Hill is a senior at Sturgeon Bay High School and has been bowling for 10 years. She bowls in the Friday Senior and High School leagues and was the standout bowler among all girls in her age bracket last year, averaging 143 with a high game of 214 and a high series of 557. She captured the league high handicap series and was part of the league championship team. One of her biggest moments was bowling her first state tournament and finishing in the top quarter of the doubles event with her partner, Cameron Krischka.

Surprisingly, Jacquelyn admitted she's not competitive but simply does the best she can.

"School is competitive enough," she said. "(When bowling) I just have fun and don't worry about it."

That's not to say she doesn't get frustrated; she just never gets down on herself and doesn't carry disappointments around with her.

Hill's continuing challenge is learning to be consistent.

"I can be consistent with scoring," she said,

"but not with throwing the ball."

The talented young lady also plays baritone in the school band and sings in the choir. In her spare time, she loves cooking. After graduation, she plans on pursuing business management at Northeast Wisconsin Technical College and plans to continue her bowling in an adult league.

Special honor aside, Jacquelyn just loves the sport.

"I've made friends because of bowling," she said. "I like to be with friends and family and not worry about anything except having fun."

The Hall of Fame banquet is Saturday, October 24 at Door County Fire Co. in Sturgeon Bay. Tickets can be purchased at either bowling center, from a board member or by calling Joan Franda at 920-825-1102 or 920-493-1102.

Minahan named boys Junior Bowler of Year

Southern Door senior Daniel Minahan captured the boys Junior Bowler of the Year honors for his outstanding performance last season and will be honored at the Hall of Fame banquet Saturday.

Minahan set a blistering pace, averaging 205 with a high game of 289 and high series of 730 in the Friday Seniors League. He led the Apple Valley Lanes team to a runner-up finish in the State Tournament in Waukesha with a career-high series of 734 and bowled in the High School All-Star Tournament in Fond du Lac, where he finished 24th with a 619 series.

Minahan has been bowling for 11 years and commits to practicing twice a week, concentrating on his spare shots, especially the 10-pin. His biggest challenge was learning to how to put rotation on the ball.

That took a while to master," he says.

He enjoys tournament bowling and bowls in at least three a year. His most memorable highlight was taking second place in the Green Bay High Average Tournament three years ago.

"I bowled well and met a lot of new people," he said.

When asked about his favorite part of bowling, he says, "I'm a competitive person and I like the competition with other people. And the fun, of course."

Minahan also competes on his school's golf team and enjoys watching other high school sports. He has been accepted at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, Oshkosh and Green Bay and while he's still undecided on a career direction, he definitely plans on pursuing college bowling.

This honor is indeed special for Minahan as he was up against some "pretty good bowlers."

"It's pretty cool," he said. "After all these years of bowling, it's good to win something."
